Summary of the Activity	Students of second year PG entered the venue with a warm welcome waving bright flashes by the first year students and professors. Students shared their experiences of the memorable journey with their classmates and the department. Three fun games were conducted by the first year students to their seniors. In the first game: Using a paper straw, students need to collect how many ever colourful gems as they can in 30 seconds. In the second game: There were 4 groups. Students were asked to go on a round as a class by dancing to the music and when the music stops, the host will mention a number from 1-4. The number called by the host will have to make different dance moves as shown in the power point. In the third game: Using popsicles, students have to pass the paper cup without touching through their hands from one end to another and repeat the same. Beautiful memories (made as a video) from the first year of college and the final year of college days made the students to reminiscing the past. Farewell gifts and snacks were distributed to the students. Group photograph as a class and with faculties were clicked.
