K P Sasi, veteran filmmaker, activist and cartoonist, screened his documentary film, “Voices from ruins: Kandhamal in search of Justice” for the students of B.Voc. and M.Voc. Digital Journalism on 2nd July 2018. The film has documented the pogrom that was unleashed on Adivasi and Dalit Christians in Kandhamal, Odisha on August 25, 2008. “Communal violence in Orissa dates back to 1960s. Kandhamal episode was one of the biggest and widely known one. The sad part is that the victims are yet to get justice”, said the filmmaker. He added that it is time to eradicate extremist forces and experience secularism in our country. Some of the caricatures done by K P Sasi were showcased at the venue.
