

WORKSHOP ON CITIZEN JOURNALISM: SCOPE AND CHALLENGES

KAUSHAL Kendra organized a one-day workshop on “Citizen Journalism: Scope and Challenges” for the Citizen Journalism students of III B.Voc. Digital Journalism on 11th December 2018 at the Drawing Studio of the department. Mr. Narasimhan, an Independent Journalist & Blogger was the resource person.

Students had an intense understanding on the role of citizen journalists in disseminating information. His ideas of local and hyper-local stories, reflecting the social needs of the local community, were an eye opener for the students. Mr.Narasimhan empowered students by introducing to students to the increased possibilities of ordinary citizens to cover, broadcast and comment on news that affect them, which has become a reality today with the advent of social media. He explained how citizen journalism could be complimentary and contribute immensely to the mainstream journalism.
