

Loyola College (Autonomous)

Chennai – 600 034.

Human Rights Day

A district-level Inter-Collegiate YRC Volunteers' meet

Organized by Youth Red Cross

Youth Red Cross - Loyola College organized a district-level Inter-Collegiate YRC Volunteers' meet on the 10th of December 2014, in alignment with the International Human Rights Day. Around 150 YRC volunteers from various colleges in Chennai, attended the event scheduled during the forenoon, actively participating in the sessions and Mime Event.

Dr. Raja Samuel, the Chief Guest, lighting the Lamp during Inauguration

Dr. Raja Samuel, Head of the Department, Madras School of Social Work, was the Chief Guest. He delivered an action-centered session on the topic, “Role of the Youth in building an equitable society”. He emphasized on how the youth should realize their indispensable role in actively contributing to the society, by being good citizens.

Dr. Raja Samuel giving his presentation

The Guest of Honour, Dr. Sr. Lourthu Mary FMM, Faculty from the department of Social Work – Stella Maris College, Chennai – delivered a talk on “Empowerment of Women in the Indian Context”. Her passionate presentation with authentic statistics on the state of women, had left the audience breathless.

Dr. Sr. Lourthu Mary FMM, the Guest of Honor delivering a talk

Around 150 participants enthusiastically participating

Volunteers representing the C.T.T.E College for Women, perambur, Chennai - won the first place in the Mime Event.

Youth Red Cross has successfully launched an awareness campaign throwing light on the Human Rights Violations, need to coexist despite the differences, Child and Bonded Labor, Tolerance and Religious harmony through collages, posters, and action oriented pictorial affirmations.

Prof. Chris Coordinator Shift - II, proposing Vote of Thanks

Prof. Chris, proposed the vote of thanks. The programme was wound up after the National Anthem.