

Loyola College (Autonomous)

Chennai – 600 034

A Report on the Inaugural Function of FLOWS (Forum for Loyola Women Students)

The FLOWS inauguration was organised on 5th August 2016 in Bertram Hall. Mrs V. Vanitha, IPS had graced the occasion as the chief guest, while Aspy Joyson, Founder and the Director, Aruwew as the Guest of honour. Rev. Fr. Rector, Rev. Fr. Secretary, Rev. Fr. Principal, Dean of students and Deputy Dean of Women students presided over the function.

Dean of women students Prof. Mary Jessie Rani gave brief introduction about the Chief Guest and Prof. Josephine Priya presented a brief introduction about the Guest of Honour. Next, Kuthuvilaku was lighted by the Chief Guest and Guest of Honour along with dignitaries. The Chief Guest and Guest of Honour were honoured with a fruit bouquet and a Memento by Rev. Fr. Rector, Rev. Fr. Secretary and president & secretary of FLOWS.

Rev. Fr. Rector then addressed the gathering. The Chief Guest V. Vanitha, IPS delivered an inaugural address to FLOWS. She shared an inspiring speech that made every women student change their perspective towards freedom. The Guest of Honour Aspy Joyson also gave an inspiring talk on the Importance of Lending a Helping Hand to others. Dr. Carol, Deputy Dean of Women Students proposed the Oath taking. All the office bearers of FLOWS were felicitated with a gown and pledged the Oath sincerely. The president of FLOWS Ms. Shahini Vinotha presented the theme and agenda of FLOWS for the year 2016-2017. Rev. Fr. Secretary and Rev. Fr. Principal felicitated the office bearers and the gathering. Vote of thanks was delivered by the Secretary of FLOWS Ms. Saranya. Finally National Anthem was played. All women students participated and were benefited.

