PONGAL CELEBRATION

On 13th January 2023, the Office of the Dean of Students, Loyola College organized a common celebration of Pongal festival for the entire college, by providing a dedicated space to each department to prepare the Pongal and also to take part in the Rangoli competition.

The Department of Commerce took part in the program of preparing Pongal and also in the Rangoli competition. The students wore ethnic dress and happily took part in preparing the Pongal and also in the Rangoli competition. The staff members were there to assist in the preparation of Pongal. The students came with the necessary ingredients to prepare Pongal.

The College also arranged entertainment with the village based traditional competition. The events reflecting the Tamil culture, took part in the college quadrangle. The program was highly entertaining with good music and dance performance gave the glimpse of Tamil tradition. The students were in their ethnic dress and the entire campus was filled with joy and music.

The perfect preparation of Pongal made the Department of Commerce to win the first prize in the 'Pongal preparation competition. The judges appreciated the quality preparation of Pongal with good taste. The combined efforts of the staff members and the students of the Department of Commerce made this Pongal Celebration as a unique and a memorable one.
