REPORT

The PG & Research Department of Commerce conducted Department Orientation for the first-year students on December 8th and December 9th 2021 for batch 1 and batch 2 students respectively as per the Covid -19 guidelines.

The purpose of the session was to make the freshers know about the college as well as their department, the functionalities, its achievements, its events and to brief about the prominent alumni, as well the responsibilities of being the student of the Commerce department.

The Student's Council of Loyola Commerce Association was also introduced to the students and were given brief information about the Council and the role played by it in the formation of the students and the importance of being involved in the extra-curricular activities.

The Orientation program started with a prayer song performed by the LCA Band and with the felicitation rendered by Dr. A Marcus, Head of the Department and Dr. N Maria Joseph, LCA president. The staff members took part in the program. Dr. T Joseph, Former Head of the Department and Dr. Jesu Kulandairaj, Former LCA President wished the students during the occasion.

The LCA Band performed an energetic performance, which was followed by a dance program by Mr Mahaprabhu, our student. Music jam was rendered by the LCA Band and enlightened the participants. The freshers felt very comfortable with the seniors and acknowledged their appreciation to the organisers.

The first year students came forward and showcased their talents and got applause from the gathering. The talents exhibited were beat boxing, singing and playing the music instruments such as guitar, keyboard and the flute.

The orientation session came to an end by 12:30 with the distribution of refreshments.
