

DR. B. JOSEPH JAYARAJ, PH. D.
(JUNE 26, 1951 - FEBRUARY 9, 2022)

A memorial tribute was organised to pay respect to Dr. Joseph Jayaraj who passed away on 9th February 2022 and the event was conducted in LS Hall from 12.20 pm to 1.20 pm.

In his message, Rev. Fr. Principal shared that Dr. Jayaraj took the name of the college to other countries, introduced the restructuring program in the college, and was the brainchild behind opening of the Centre for International Program (now LIAC) in Loyola College.

The members present in the meeting acknowledged that Dr. Jayaraj was a man of great positivity, never talked anything ill about others and always supported and guided the younger staff members to achieve academic excellence.

Our retired staff member Dr. S.P. Thiruthuvadass, our commerce alumni Mr. Gregory Xavier (1979-82) and Mr. Ravi (1977-81), the faculty of shift 1 & 2, staff members of LIAC, students of M. Com. and the class representatives attended the event.

Mrs. Jayaraj and his daughter were present. The participants paid a floral tribute to the portrait of Dr. Joseph Jayaraj. The members of the Department of Commerce paid due respects to Dr. Joseph Jayaraj and prayed for the repose of his soul. The event came to an end with a vote of thanks proposed by Dr. Jesu Kulandairaj.
