About the Event:

Loyola Commerce Forum (LCF) organized the event 'Nativity of Mother Mary' for the commerce department students through the virtual mode which was conducted during the first hour of regular classes. The auspicious day of 8th September, the birth of Mother Mary was celebrated to pray for the success & glory of our beloved students and professors. This event enlightened the students with peace & spirituality.

The following is the list of performances undertaken during the event

1. Enlighten students to find God in every person.
2. Everything we do is “for the greater honor and glory of God’.
3. Guide the seeker towards an inner freedom that allows a wholehearted yes to a life in god.
4. Embark faith in Christ, faith in the Church, faith in humankind
