About the Event:

The valedictory function of the Commerce Forum 2021-22 was held at Bertram Hall specifically for acknowledging and celebrating the achievements of the students and the department. The Commerce Forum invited Dr. Shelley Salehin, Deputy High Commissioner of Bangladesh, South India to grace the occasion.

The welcome address was given by the coordinator of the commerce forum in which he stated the value of getting educated at this prestigious institution. He appreciated all the outgoing students, forum members, and faculties for their wonderful contributions throughout the year.

The Honorable Chief Guest Dr. Shelley Salehin, Deputy High Commissioner of Bangladesh for South India spoke on the importance of being sincere in whatever work we do. Also shared one of his experiences with his senior officer who taught him that a sincere and dedicated man is more valuable than a good man. Also stated the importance of becoming educated and making the world peaceful for the future generation.

Furthermore, he shared about the good relationship maintained by Bangladesh and India. It is one of the most important strategic partners which India cannot afford to ignore, sharing most of its borders with India. India always gives importance to Bangladesh in its foreign policy.

A newsletter named Crescendo (mind with peak) was brought out by the department portrayed the department's activities and achievements. The newsletter was released by the honorable Chief Guest along with the Coordinator, President, Vice president, and publication secretaries of commerce forum.

The Commerce Forum had taken an initiative to recognize the outgoing students as token of appreciation to best outgoing students proficient in specified fields namely, academics, cultural & sports.

The event further continued to recognize the efforts and activities performed and executed by the Office Bearers of the Commerce Forum as well as the Class Representatives.

The members of the Commerce forum were felicitated with a memento and certificate for their sincere efforts and participation throughout the semester. All the class representatives were appreciated with a certificate for their contribution to their respective classes.
