Report of the programme on the
"Online Safety Workshop"

We the Loyola Forum for Women Students (FLOWS) hosted the online safety workshop at Y.D Hall in our college on 14th August 2018. The programme aimed at creating awareness on the online safety to the students.

The dignitaries from various digital platforms addressed the gathering. Ms. Roshni Baronia, Businesses Head of SheThePeople.TV started the day's session about the online safety and then Ms. Aradhana Biradar from Google explained the women students the threats faced on online social platforms such as Facebook, Instagram and Whatsapp and also gave a brief explanation to overcome those threats with the help of PowerPoint presentations. After which there was an interaction with students.

The second part of the session was the panel discussion by Ms. Aradhana Biradar from Google, Mrs. Ramya Authappam the Director Women Who Code, Chennai and Mrs. Vandana Ramanathan the Co-Founder W square. They discussed their challenges as a woman in their career and how they overcame it. They motivated the students by their inspiring speech and discussions.

Finally the vote of thanks was given by Ms. Aishwarya, Coordinating secretary of FLOWS.
