

Thoudam David Endowment Lecture Report (2017-18)

The Department of Economics conducted the Thoudam David Endowment lecture for the year 2018 in memory of Thoudam David, an Alumnus of the Department of Economics. Loyola Economics Association for Development (L.E.A.D.) organized the program on 28th of February 2018. Mrs. Nandini Nair, IRS (Assistant Commissioner of Income tax, Chennai) was the chief guest for the occasion. The program began with the prayer sung by the department choir seeking the blessings of Lord Almighty. The program was formally Inaugurated by lighting of the lamp by Mrs. Nandini Nair, IRS .

Dr.T.P.Subramanian,Co-ordinator(Shift-2) presented the welcome address and introduced the Chief Guest, which was then followed by presentation of Memento and Bouquet to Chief Guest by Prof.B.Bhagwan Das, Head of the Department. Mrs. Nandini Nair, IRS addressed the gathering on one of the major tax reform GST and its impact on the economy.

The vote of thanks was presented by Dheeraj Prashanth , Secretary LEAD. The students enthusiastically participated in gaining insights from the lecture.

