

A line of successes

A film appreciation session for media students began with the screening of Tamil feature film “Iraivi” on 18th October 2016. The Director of the movie Mr. Karthik Subbaraj was invited for an interaction. His maiden feature film “Pizza” was a blockbuster, winning praises from audiences and critics. His next film was a cult thriller “Jigarthanda”, a box-office hit and much applauded for garnering numerous awards. He also produced a few short films and two anthology films under his banner “Stone bench creations”.

After the screening, he explained why he chose a woman-centric theme. He said he was much impressed by writer Sujatha’s novel titled “Jannal Malar”, which inspired him to make this film. He also explained how he overcame the hurdles he faced for the film dialogues during film certification.
