

Documentary Film Festival

Loyola Institute of Vocational Education (LIVE) in collaboration with Marupakkam organized a three-day Documentary Film Festival at LIVE Preview Theatre between 19th and 21st December 2017 in order to introduce the various genres of Documentary Films.

Day-1

The festival started well with an inaugural session at 10.00a.m. on 19th December 2017. Mrs.Shobana, Coordinator of LIVE introduced the curator of the festival Mr.R.P.Amudhan. He gave a short introduction about the three days festival.

‘And Miles To Go’, ‘I Am 20’and ‘Arrival’ were screened during the first session. These documentaries were directed in 70’s and funded by the Government of India.

‘Knock Out’and ‘Shit’ were screened during the second session. The participants were shocked by seeing the Shit movie. ‘Yaadhum’, ‘Zanibar’and ‘Music Club’were screened during the third session.

At the end of each session,Mr. Amudhan had interaction with the participants.

Mr.Kombai S. Anwar,Director of Yaadhum, also had a discussion with the participants.

Day-2

‘Yuban’and ‘Mostly Waiting’ were screened during the first session in the 2nd day of the documentary festival.

‘MyNameisPalaru’ was screened during the second session and the director of the movie Mr.R.R. Srinivasan had discussion with the participants after the screening.

‘She’‘Write’‘Scorpions’ were screened post lunch.

Mr. Amudhan had a discussion with the participants at the end of each session.

Day-3

'A Pestring Journey' and 'KuutyJapaninKulanthaigal'were screened during the 3rdday of the documentary festival.

Students from other departments of Loyola College and a few others from other colleges also participated in the festival.

Mr.Yuvaraj, a student of English Department of Loyola College, thanked the LIVE team for organizing this festival.

Mr. Mani Sridhar, Head of JAEL Studios, presented a memento and a book to Mr. Amudhan.