

The Road Home

Filmscreening sessions are an integral part of learning for the Film Making, Film Editing and Cinematography students.

“The Road Home” was screened on 7th August 2017 to Film Making, Film Editing and Cinematography students. The screening followed by an open discussion about the film, its technical aspects and how to watch the film as a whole.

Writer-Cinematographer Mr. Chezhiyan had an interactive session with the students and explained the importance of watching different films and its importance.

Chezhiyan is one of the prominent film critics in Tamil cinema industry. He is also an acclaimed author of a series of books about cinema titled 'UlagaCinema'(world cinema) in Tamil. The series of ulaga cinema articles were published by AnandaVikatan, the Tamil weekly from 2005 to 2007.

The students also discussed about his cinematography experience at the end of the session. He was presented various books of short stories and novels.