

Relationship between the Director and an Editor

Mr. S.P. Rajasethupathy a well-known film editor from Tamil Film Industry interacted with Film Editing students on 1st September 2017. He edited more than 5 Tamil feature films like Sathuranga Vettai and Thiri.

He introduced the basics of editing and then he explained the roles of an editor. Further he explained the relationship between the director and an editor. Finally he shared his professional experience of working in different movies especially Sathuranga Vettai to make the students to understand the relationship between the editor and the director.

The students were very delighted and enjoyed the session, especially because the guest is very young with rich experience in the industry. Film editing representative Mr. Shoban gave a vote of thanks and requested the guest to come again for a session.
