

Good relationship between Director and Actor

One day workshop on good relationship between Director and Actor was organized on 14th April 2018 for Film Making students. Director & Actor Arunmozhi is a noted filmmaker in the Tamil film Industry had moderated the workshop. National Award winner - Actor & Director Ms. Rohini was the guest for the morning session. Director & Actor Mr. Subramaniam Siva and Director & Actor Mr. Mysskin were guests for the afternoon session.

Actor Rohini started the session by sharing some of her acting experience in movies like Bahubali, Nandhalala, Vellaikaran, Maglir Mattum, etc., Then she explained how an actor prepares before every project. Further she had given various demos and exercises to involve the students. She had asked the students to write a script and that was enacted during the session. Through this exercise she had explained the role of a director to get the work from an actor.

She also gave an example from Bahubali to explain how the story board helps the actor to enhance their performance. She went on to give various examples from her experience of working with different style of directors.

Director & actor Subramaniam Siva shared his experience in handling the artists during the post lunch session. He narrated his experience with actor Dhanush and actor Jeeva.

Director & Actor Mysskin started the session by sharing his film making style. Then he explained how he builds a character and selects artist for the same. He requested the students to ask questions and responded to that with examples from his work.

Mr. Mohan, student of Film Making, mentioned during the feedback session that learning this subject from the well experienced masters helped him to enhance his understanding.