

A Guest Lecture on Logistics

A Guest Lecture on logistics was held on 27th August 2018 with Mr. Yokesh Kumar as the resource person. First he explained what logistics was and he explained the complete process of import and export. He explained the flow of goods from one place to another using a flow chart. He explained the international process.

Mr. Yokesh Kumar addressing the students

Then, he spoke about some important terms and codes used in logistics. He also explained about choking and lashing. He also spoke about the different modes of shipping, the container and its features, the modes of shipping and kinds of ships. He spoke about the scope and opportunities in the field. He also explained warehousing.