

Adding Colour to Life

Colours play a major role in our life. A seminar was organised in association with Asian Paints for students of Architecture and Interior Design to understand the psychology and efficient use of colours.

The meaning and concept of the colour wheel, colour psychology and pantone colours were explained. Students were briefed about different types of texture too.

The session had many activities for the students to understand the concepts better.