

Script to Screen

Mr. R D Balaji, Head, Department of Film Technology and Diploma in Film Acting, SRM University, delivered a lecture on the theme ‘Script to Screen’.

Starting the session with a power point presentation, he emphasized on the importance of a script writer’s creative thinking ability to present a script visually for it to become a reality. He later screened a short film ‘No Vacancy’, which exposed the qualities that youth lack to succeed in the field.

Towards the end, students interacted with Mr.Balaji to understand the nuances of writing a good script and a creating a perfect story board.