PNB CEO not satisfied with repayment offer

NT Bureau / Agencies

Chennai, Feb 16:

Promising to honour the bank's commitment, PNB managing director and CEO Sunil Mehta said that the main accused has promised to repay but said the plan was vague. Almost three weeks after the fraud was detected, he said PNB had received an offer for repayment of the liability over email but it was not satisfied. 'He has not come out with any concrete plan to repay so far. But they are coming out with some vague offers, which are under examination,' said Mehta.

The bank said it will take all possible action against the wrong-doers in the Rs 11,400-crore Nirav Modi fraud case, which started in 2011. It has suspended 10 officers over the scam and referred the matter to the CBI for investigations. The Enforcement Directorate is continuing raids at various places associated with the well-known jewellery designer.

LIMITED OPTIONS

The delay in filing of complaint by the bank left limited options for the agency with one of them being revocation of proceedings, they said. The bank claimed that it became suspicious only on 16 January when the accused companies approached it

ED summons Nirav Modi, Choksi

The Enforcement Directorate today issued summons for appearance to billionaire diamond merchant Nirav Modi and his business partner Mehul Choksi in connection with its money laundering probe in the Rs 11,400 crore alleged fraud in Punjab National Bank (PNB), officials said.

They said both Nirav and Choksi were summoned under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) and asked to depose within a week's time. The notices were handed over to the directors of the firms of the two businessmen as they were not in the country.

While Modi runs the jewellery brand chain under his name, Choksi is the promoter of Gitanjali Gems. The ED had registered a PMLA case against them and others based on a CBI FIR which was the result of a PNB complaint.

Apart from this, these banks extended another Rs 500 crore in non-fund based facilities such as guarantees or LoUs to the company. Of this, Rs 90 crore has been repaid by Firestar International. Union Bank of India clarified that it has nearly 17 per cent exposure to transaction fraud worth Rs 11,300 crore detected by Punjab National Bank recently. The bank is fully confident to receive the payment, it added.
