

Loyola College (Autonomous)
Chennai - 600 034

The Intercollegiate Quiz Competition
“Road to the White House U.S. Elections” 2016

In view of the upcoming presidential elections in the United States of America, an intercollegiate quiz event was organised by the American Library, office of public affairs, U.S. Consul General, Chennai, on 21st September. The event was titled as "Road to the White House 2016 Election". Students of various institutions across the city participated in this mega event which was held in the auditorium of MOP Vaishnav College. Our college was represented by the members of the Loyola Debating Society and Quiz club. John George D' Coutho and Sreekanth of the LDS brought laurels to the college by winning the second prize in the contest.

