

OUTREACH PROGRAM

The act of giving, sharing the sorrows of our fellow human beings, catering to the needs of others is the hallmark & true meaning of Christmas. Embracing this spirit of Christmas, the members of Loyola Women's Hostel contributed Rs.1 lakh to help the needy in Chennai. 21 students volunteered to go out on the streets and help the needy, on 22nd December, 2021.

Sarees and lungis were distributed among the elders living on the streets in Chennai. The students visited the elders abandoned near the Chennai Central Station, Egmore, Park Town etc. They also visited the Rajiv Gandhi Government General Hospital. Owing to this pandemic, masks were also distributed. Bedsheets and blankets were also given to the needy.

The working staff of the hostel, who hail from broken families and extremely marginalized sections of the society, were also provided with 15 days of provisions. Sarees, lungis and blankets were also given to them.

